

PRIVACY POLICY

Privacy Policy describes the policies of 4-INDUSTRY ("we"), regarding the collection, use, disclosure and protection of the information obtained from you or other users while visiting our site and e-mail communication with users related to the site.

This privacy policy does not apply to information that we may collect from you by other means (including offline) or from other sources. Your use of this Site constitutes your acceptance of all of the terms and conditions contained in this Privacy Policy and your consent to any action we take with respect to your information that is in compliance with this Privacy Policy.

We may change the terms of this Privacy Policy, so Users are encouraged to review this page from time to time. You can always review Privacy Policy on www.4-industry.com/documents/4INDUSTRY_PP_EN.pdf; your continued use of this Site following the posting of changes to the Privacy Policy means that you accept the changes.

General

We require you to provide us with certain information about your organization/yourself when you register with this Site and when you request products and services. We also collect information from you when you participate in contests and surveys, when you respond to requests for feedback and when you submit postings to public areas of this Site.

The information we collect may include information from which you may be personally identified ("Personally Identifiable Information"), such as name, postal address, telephone number, fax number and e-mail address, and also may include certain business information, such as employer, occupation, job function, job title and buying information (e.g., preferences or history). This Site only collects Personally Identifiable Information with your knowledge.

We also may use your information to better understand the needs of our Users and to improve our Site. For example, we may use this information to determine what portions of the Site are most popular and the demographics of our Users generally.

Cookies and other User information also enable us to customize your experience on the Site.

We may use IP addresses to help diagnose problems with our servers or to administer our Site. We may also use IP addresses to help identify a User during a particular session and to gather data regarding use of the Site.

Automatic Data Collection

When you visit this Site, we may collect the IP address of your computer. We also automatically record other information that identifies your computer to this Site and tracks your behavior on the Site. For example, we may record how many times you visit this Site and your navigation within the Site. We do not collect Personally Identifiable Information in this manner; however, if you provide us with Personally Identifiable Information, we may associate that information with the information that is collected automatically.

Methods used to collect this information may include "cookies" and "clear GIFs" (also known as "pixel tags" or "beacons"). A cookie is a small amount of data that is sent to your browser from a server and stored on your computer's hard drive. Most browsers allow Users to block the receipt of cookies, but doing so may compromise your ability to use certain features of this Site. A clear GIF is a small graphic image, typically used in connection with cookies, that is placed on a web site or in an email message. A clear GIF can monitor certain user behavior, such as your usage of the web site, whether you opened an email message or whether you clicked on a URL in an email message.

Third parties may serve some of the materials included on this Site, including advertising. These third parties, in the course of serving such materials, may collect information regarding your use of this Site and how you respond to e-mail communications, using methods that may include those described in the preceding paragraph. Collection, use, disclosure and security of information collected by third parties are subject to the privacy policies of those third parties.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Registration Information

You can access and maintain all your personally identifiable information that we collect online in My Profile after successful proceeding of registration.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

Newsletters and Offers

We may use the information you provide us to send you e-mail, fax and other communications on behalf of 4-INDUSTRY. These communications may include e-mail newsletters that are relevant to this Site, as well as offers for other 4-INDUSTRY services. All of these communications will include instructions explaining how you can request that we not send you („opt out“) future communications of the same type.

We also may use your information to send you e-mail, fax and other communications on behalf of unaffiliated third parties. You may opt out of receiving third party offers from this Web Site at any time by sending e-mail to privacymanager@4-industry.com with the subject line "opt out - third party."

Security

We use reasonable security safeguards to protect Personally Identifiable Information we collect on this Site from unauthorized access, use, modification or disclosure. However, due to the design of the Internet and other factors outside of our control, we cannot guarantee that communications between you and our servers will be free from unauthorized access by third parties.

Opt-out

Any opt out request will only be effective after a reasonable period of time for processing.

Links

This Site contains content, services, advertising and other materials that link to Web sites operated by third parties. We have no control over those other sites, and this Privacy Policy does not apply to them. We encourage you to refer to the privacy policies, if any, of those sites.
